

Community Theatre, Bude, Cornwall

Competition

This competition project was for a new Community Theatre set on the waterfront in Bude. The aim was to enliven the waterfront with new facilities for tourists and mariners, and provide a building which would be capable of being used for a variety of purposes without losing its identity.

