

Glasgow Tower, St Enoch's Square, Glasgow Competition

ARCADE's entry for this 1992 competition was shortlisted and exhibited. The tower consisted of a 'bundle' of three tall cylinders of different heights tied together with viewing platforms at various levels, and a special crow's nest look-out at the top.

Structural Engineer: Woolgar Hunter & Partners

ARCADE
ARCHITECTS
www.arcadearchitects.com