

Scottish Architecture & Design Centre, Haymarket, Edinburgh

Competition

The brief for this competition project was multi-faceted : the buildings had to incorporate an IMAX Cinema and an Architecture and Design Centre for Scotland as well as a bus station and a substantial amount of office space.

The focus of the project was re-designing Haymarket to form a new urban space, incorporating links to the revamped railway station.

